TEXAS PARKS AND WILDLIFE CODE 2018 EDITION

It is wrong to bring into existence, knowingly, a being less excellent than one could have brought into existence Adams,As opposed to the incorrect principle just cited, Adams does support the more plausible principle: It is wrong for human beings to cause, knowingly and voluntarily, the procreation of an offspring of human parents which is notably deficient, by comparison with normal human beings, in mental and physical capacity Adams,God's graciousness in creating does not imply that the creatures He has chosen to create must be less excellent than the best possible. At both times they are set off from the main clause by a comma.
