public relations work of the Berlin State Library - Prussian Cultural Heritage aims at effectively presenting its globally significant treasures as well as its services for the scientific world. This attention to thought as such, and the identification of ourselves with it rather than with any of the objects which it reveals, is a momentous and in some respects a rather mysterious operation, of which we need here only say that as a matter of fact it exists; and that in everyone, at an early age, the distinction between thought as such, and what it is 'of' or 'about,' has become familiar to the mind.
