Read. A lot of A nicely bound copy of Marceline Desbordes-Valmore's poetry. Terms of Use. Textiles Mixed Media. Dissemination and Reception in the Later Middle Ages. The characters are shown around their city block, in their apartments, at church and in their club. In its presence and activity of perception and expression, the film transcends the filmmaker to constitute and locate its own address, its own perceptual and expressive experience of being and becoming. As a medium capable of offering a particular set of corporeal sensations, such as the haptic, the kinesthetic, and the proprioceptive, film leads the viewer back to those perceptions that are essential to her own sense of being an embodied subject. Salancik illustrates this point clearly through an example where it has been found that there is a tendency to focus only on apparent achievement, for instance, the successes or the failures.
